

Program Outcome of B.A. English Honours

Students get acquainted with the prominent litterateurs of English literature under this program. They develop their skill and style in using English language for writing reviews and criticism of literary writings and composing their own writings. The program also enables students to develop their capacity of translating the writings of other language into English. The students of English Honours acquire the knowledge of historical development of English literature from the beginning. Students have the global exposure by going through the writings of different languages and nations translated into English on completing the program. The program makes students go through the writings of European classical literature namely Homer's Iliad, Ovid's Metamorphosis, Plautus' The Pot of Gold, the epistles and satire of Horace as well as Sanskrit plays of Kalidas and Sudrak translated into English. Students are also initiated into American and African literature by going through the writings of the prominent poets and writers of those nations.

Apart from enriching the knowledge and skill of learners, the program also provides them opportunity for various kinds of career option. Learners may go ahead with higher studies and research and opt for teaching career. There is also the prospect of job as a translator in various departments for the students of English Honours. On completion of the program of BA English Honours, learners may look for lucrative career abroad too.